

Scientific American welcomes ideas for articles on recent scientific discoveries, technical innovations, and overviews of ongoing research. Our preferred authors have extensive first-hand knowledge of the field that they describe, and have usually made significant contributions to it.

SEARCHER

The magazine is targeted to experienced, knowledgeable searchers and combines evaluations of data content with discussions of delivery media. Searcher includes evaluated online news, searching tips and techniques, reviews of search aid software and database documentation, revealing interviews with leaders and entrepreneurs of the industry, and trenchant editorials.

SMART BUSINESS

It is a good resource for people looking to buy, use, and learn more about technology. By combining the enormous depth and breadth of trusted, authoritative content with the most relevant services and commerce opportunities, smart computer enables all Web users, from IT professionals to consumers, to get the most out of their investments in and involvement with technology.

STRATEGIC SURVEY

This magazine covers regional security issues, and the global factors influencing the incidence and the nature of armed conflict, in an accessible format invaluable for interpreting worldwide strategic events. Perfect for teachers and students of international relations, it is also ideal for journalists, military personnel, and economists.

TECHNOLOGY REVIEW

Technology Review is a MIT's Magazine of Innovation. The magazine, a century-old publication, was re-launched in 1998 with a new focus on the process by which new technology gets out of the lab and into the marketplace.

VITAL SPEECHES OF THE DAY

This material gives the readers the best thoughts of the best minds on the current national problems. It also offers the student of public speaking examples of the effective speech of today of those who have attained leadership in the fields of economics, politics, education, sociology, government, criminology, finance, business, taxation, health, law, labor, etc.

WILSON QUARTERLY

The Wilson Quarterly is an international review of what scholars and other smart people are saying about politics, science, society, the arts, the environment, and other subjects. It is written and edited for the general reader.

WORLD WATCH MAGAZINE

This magazine focuses exclusively on issues that will determine the earth's long-term health: the battle to rein in an out-of-control consumer economy, to stabilize the global climate, and to protect our rapidly declining cultural and biological diversity.

Embassy of the United States of America
Public Affairs Section
INFORMATION RESOURCE CENTER

#310, Rose Garden Tower, 6 Ngoc Khanh, Hanoi
Tel: (84-4) 831-4580; Fax: (84-4) 831-4601
Email: irchano@pd.state.gov
<http://usembassy.state.gov/vietnam/wwwhirc.html>

TABLE OF CONTENTS SERVICE

The Information Resource Center (IRC) of the Public Affairs Section, American Embassy in Hanoi is pleased to offer you the “Table of Contents” service. Enclosed please find the list of periodicals available in the IRC.

Please mark the titles of up to 5 periodicals which interest you. As the periodicals are received, the IRC will send a photocopy of each issue’s Table of Contents. Then, simply mark the articles which you wish to receive, and we will send them to you promptly.

We look forward to serving you.

PLEASE NOTE: TOC SERVICE IS FREE OF CHARGE
AND FULL TEXT CAN BE REQUESTED VIA EMAIL, FAX
OR PHONE.

AMERICAN HERITAGE

Since 1954, American Heritage has been telling a tremendous story about anything that ever happened in America and bring us every aspect of the American past: great men and scoundrels, popular music and high art, U.S. grandest national impulses.

AMERICAN STUDIES INTERNATIONAL

ASIs primary focus is on international scholarship, but the journal includes articles by American academics as well. In addition, each issue includes a number of reviews, which provide commentary on the most recent American Studies-related books. Articles cover cultural studies, film, literature, and history.

ASIAN AFFAIRS: AN AMERICAN REVIEW

Asian Affairs: An American Review keeps readers abreast through substantive analysis of the latest developments in politics, economics, security, and international relations, especially between Asian nations and the United States. Scholars, educators, policymakers, government officials, and business executives can rely on its thoroughly researched articles.

CHALLENGE

The purpose of Challenge is to present a wide range of views on national and international economic affairs in the belief that an informed dialogue can result in more rational and effective public policy.

CHANGE: THE MAGAZINE OF HIGHER LEARNING

Change is an opinion magazine dealing with contemporary issues in higher learning. It is intended to stimulate the thoughts of reflective practitioners in colleges, universities, corporations, government, and elsewhere.

COLUMBIA JOURNAL REVIEW

The Columbia Journalism Review is recognized throughout the world as America's premiere media monitor—a watchdog of the press in all its forms, from newspapers and magazines to radio, television, and cable to the wire services and the Web. CJR examines not only day-to-day press performance but also the many forces—political, economic, technological, social, legal, and more—that affect that performance for better or worse.

CURRENT HISTORY

Current History has reflected the main themes of American history: from the isolationist peace of the 1920s to the upheavals of World War II . . .the Cold War to the New World Order.

ENVIRONMENT

Environment delivers solid analysis of environmental science and policy issues. Students and faculty rely on authoritative articles from leaders in the field, in-depth reviews of governmental and institutional reports, pointers to the best environmental Web sites, book recommendations, and commentaries that put controversies in perspective.

ENVIRONMENTAL MAGAZINE

Each edition contains thorough reporting on: key environmental issues and trends, environmental news, industry and consumer product updates, food and environmental health issues, lifestyle tips, commentary from leading thinkers and doers, reviews of new books and films, and, announcements of campaigns, events and conferences.

FORBES

Forbes providing business information services and lifestyle editorial content designed to serve the needs of business leaders, professionals, investors, and affluent consumers.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Foreign Affairs covers a broad range of subjects related to international affairs for both practitioners and a general audience. Foreign Affairs readers hold positions in government, business, finance, academe, and the media.

FOREIGN POLICY

Foreign Policy covers U.S. foreign policy and international affairs.

FORTUNE

The leading magazine on American business and corporations.

GOVERNING

Governing is a monthly magazine whose primary audience is state and local government officials: governors, legislators, mayors, city managers, council members and other elected, appointed and career officials. They are the men and women who set policy for and manage the day-to-day operations of cities, counties and states, as well as such governmental bodies as school boards and special districts.

HARVARD BUSINESS REVIEW

HBR's articles cover a wide range of topics that are relevant to different industries, sectors, management functions, and geographic locations. They focus on such areas as strategy, the new economy, leadership, teams, entrepreneurship, marketing, manufacturing, career management, and the war for talent.

JOURNAL OF AMERICAN STUDIES

Journal of American Studies publishes works by scholars from all over the world on American history, politics, literature, institutions, economics, film, popular culture, geography, sociology, and related subjects. Also included are review essays, book reviews and, biennially, a list of theses on American topics in progress and completed at British universities.

JOURNAL OF SMALL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

Journal of Small Business Management features articles on small business research around the world. It covers many topics of interest to researchers and educators, as well as practitioners, in the fields of entrepreneurship and small business.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION REVIEW

Public Administration Review is a journal for practitioners, scholars, teachers, and trainers interested in the public sector and public sector management. Articles identify and analyze current trends, provide a factual basis for decision-making, stimulate discussion, and make the literature in the field available in an easily accessible format.

THE PUBLIC INTEREST

The Public Interest has been the magazine to read on politics and culture, sought after by journalists, referenced by scholars, and consulted by policy makers.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN